What is it like for a woman when her husband becomes the President of the United States – and she is suddenly thrust into the spotlight?

TEA FOR THREE: Lady Bird, Pat & Betty is warm, whimsical, and deeply moving. It explores the hopes, fears, quirks, and loves of Lady Bird Johnson, Pat Nixon and Betty Ford in what Mrs. Nixon called “the hardest unpaid job in the world.”

What the New York critics have to say about the show:

- "Good stories...subtle...even silence is steeped in emotion." New York Times
- "Delightful and insightful...don't miss it!" CurtainUp
- "Will stay with you..." The Villager
- "Lighthearted...gently humorous..." This Week in New York
- "Beguiling!" Cultural Capitol

And from elsewhere in the country:

- "6 out of 5 stars!" AustinOnStage.com
- "Perfect. I felt honored, as a man, to be allowed to share this." KDHX
- "Brilliant! Reaches across the aisles." WomenArts
- "Marvelous...poignant...the authors' finest achievement is that they have humanized their subjects." The Star-Ledger
- "Elaine Bromka is a brilliant mimic...a pleasure working with her!" Rich Little
